Parish Newsletter April 2019

Dietrich Bonhoeffer: Pastor, Martyr, Prophet, Spy

In our Lent Groups this year, we have been discussing the film “The Way” starring Martin Sheen, about the pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela. Alongside it, we are also using a book which ends each discussion session with a prayer by the Lutheran pastor, Bonhoeffer. His was an extraordinary life, culminating in imprisonment in a concentration camp, and after a cursory court martial, he was sentenced to death. Bonhoeffer was a firm opponent of Hitler’s philosophy. Two days after Hitler’s election as Chancellor in Jan 1933, he made a radio broadcast criticising Hitler, and in particular the danger of an idolatrous cult of the Fuhrer. His radio broadcast was cut off mid-air. Bonhoeffer was vehemently opposed to the persecution of Jews, and while serving as a messenger for a small German resistance movement, he assisted in helping Jews to escape to Switzerland. It was for this activity that he was arrested.

Even during the appalling conditions of the concentration camp, Bonhoeffer maintained his deep spirituality which was evident to other prisoners. A fellow inmate who was an officer of the British Army wrote that Bonhoeffer’s soul really shone in the dark desperation of the prison. In “Prayers for Fellow Prisoners, Christmas 1943” he wrote simple and accessible prayers, one of which ends with the words: “Lord, whatever this day may bring, your name be praised”.

One of Bonhoeffer’s famous sayings is “There is meaning in every journey that is unknown to the traveller”. This is so appropriate for our Lent Groups based on the journey of a bereaved father in the film “The Way”. Let us know if you would like to join one of our groups in the run up to Easter – you would be very welcome.

The Queen’s Birthday

The Queen’s actual birthday is on 21 April, when she will be 93. She also has an Official Birthday on 15 June this year, when the Trooping of the Colour takes place. As Sovereign, the Queen has important constitutional relationships with the Established Churches of England and Scotland, dating back to the 16th and 17th centuries. She holds the title 'Defender of the Faith and Supreme Governor of the Church of England'.

The Vicar's Letter

One of the great privileges of my job is being asked to go into our schools and lead assemblies and talk about the Christian faith. This time of year I can guarantee that the one question which will come up again will be: “Why do we call it “Good” Friday”? This is an excellent question and one which naturally challenges all of us. For those of us who regularly attend Church, Good Friday is unlike any other day in the Church's year. We find the Church stripped of all its decoration and colour, no candles are lit, and our worship is sombre and reflective. And this is right; given that this is the day we remember that Jesus died. This is an important day, one of the most important days in the Church year. But why is it “Good”? Well, perhaps we might think of it a little like this. If we look at our own lives, we can all reflect on an experience, a moment which was painful or hard at the time, perhaps the break-up of a relationship, the loss of a job, or an argument with a friend. That moment was, and remains, a painful memory and experience. But so often when people tell me about those experiences, they go on to say: “but some good came from it”. Sometimes in the pain of our human experience we discover a new opportunity, a new relationship, and a new honesty with one another which sets our lives on a new and more positive path.

If we can think of these examples in our lives, then think of the journey of Jesus to the Cross, his suffering and death as this type of “good” but amplified and multiplied beyond our possible imagining. In a world of sadness and suffering, of human cruelty and pain, God in Jesus shows us in the events of that first Good Friday the love He has for each one of us. A love which goes anywhere, does anything, overcomes all things, to show us the transforming power of that love. And that is not only “Good” it is the greatest truth we can know. On Good Friday we will remember the “Good” of this day. There we will sing Isaac Watts' famous hymn, When I Survey the Wondrous Cross. As we sing it, we will remember the pain and suffering of Good Friday, but we will also remember the life and good that flows from:

Love so amazing, so divine, Demands my Soul, my Life, my All.

Wishing you a blessed Holy Week and Happy Easter

DATES FOR THE DIARY

Parish Coffee Morning at Haltwhistle Methodist Hall

On Saturday 20 July from 9.30 am – raffle and tombola prizes gratefully received. More details next month.

The Deanery Pilgrimage continues after the great time we had in Alston parish last June. This year we are planning another two-day pilgrimage which will complete the first circumnavigation of the deanery churches. We are yet to finalise the route, but overall we are planning Greenhead to Warden over the two days, Friday 14 and Saturday 15 June. The walk will call at each church where there will belinked exhibitions of a Christian Aid project we are looking to support. This project works with displaced persons who are refugees in their own country, for example in Kenya, Nigeria and Iraq. We hope that all parishes will have pilgrims who join in – it truly was great last year, walking and talking with friends and new friends. One of the high spots was the middle evening we spent in Alston, and we are hoping to do something similar in the Haydon Bridge area, possibly at The Sill. In order to make this happen we will need to have a fairly clear idea of numbers. Staying over is optional as is joining the pilgrimage itself, but it does add another dimension to the event. If you would like to know more please contact David on 01434 608882 or by email r.david.ratcliff@gmail.com. We will need to make bookings at The Sill very quickly, especially if we have a large number. Please spread the word! The need to book is getting nearer every day.
